

This chart shows the ancestral links between the Burghs of Cambridgeshire and Yorkshire and the Watertons of Lincolnshire and Yorkshire. By her marriage, Constance Assenhull carried the estates of Walton and Cawthorne to Richard de Waterton. These estates had come down to Constance from the Burghs through her mother, Joan.

From de Burgh via Assenhull to Waterton.

Based upon: (a) The Burghs of Cambridgeshire and Yorkshire and the Watertons of Lincolnshire and Yorkshire. J.W. Walker, OBE, FSA, The Journal of the Yorkshire Archaeological Society, 1931. (b) Genealogical data supplied by David Alexander Richard Waterton-Anderson, 2004 Overtown Miscellany

For detailed information about the the Burghs and the Watertons, see The Burghs of Cambridgeshire and Yorkshire and the Watertons of Lincolnshire and Yorkshire by J.W. Walker, reprinted from the Journal of the Yorkshire Archaeological Society, 1931.